The following alterations are made to the Procurement Notice:

8. Eligibility and rules of origin

The former text:

Participation is open to all legal persons participating either individually or in a grouping (consortium) of tenderers which are established in a Member State of the European Union or in a country or territory of the regions covered and/or authorised by the specific instruments applicable to the programme under which the contract is financed (see item 22 below). All goods supplied under this contract must originate in one or more of these countries. Participation is also open to international organisations. Participation of natural persons is directly governed by the specific instruments applicable to the programme under which the contract is financed.

Shall read as new text:

Participation is open to all legal persons participating either individually or in a grouping (consortium) of tenderers which are established in a Member State of the European Union or in a country or territory of the regions covered and/or authorised by the specific instruments applicable to the programme under which the contract is financed (see item 22 below). All goods supplied under this contract must originate in one or more of these countries. Participation is also open to international organisations. Participation of natural persons is directly governed by the specific instruments applicable to the programme under which the contract is financed.

Derogation to the rule of origin is granted for the following items:

- 3.7 External hard disk (R 225 – 226 of the Technical Specifications)
- 3.10 Camera 360° for system security (R 231 – 232 of the Technical Specifications)

All other terms and conditions of the Procurement Notice remain unchanged. The above alterations to the Procurement Notice are integral part of the Procurement Notice.
