

Ambassador Sem Fabrizi, Head of the EU Delegation to Serbia

Europe Day, held on 9 May every year celebrates peace and solidarity in Europe.

It marks the anniversary of the historic ‘Schuman declaration’ of May 9, 1950, considered to be the beginning of what has developed over the past seven decades into what is now the European Union.

The concept is simple, yet revolutionary: by cooperating, the people of Europe will achieve peace and solidarity. By pooling their sovereignty they will achieve prosperity and security.

In these very challenging days, the united response to the COVID-19 pandemic once again demonstrated that thanks to this unique cooperation and spirit of solidarity we will overcome also these difficulties.

Europe Day is therefore an important day for Serbia too, who has decided to pursue its European perspective and to build a more democratic, prosperous, and secure Country in line with EU values and interests.

This is why we are marking Europe Day all across Serbia and throughout the whole month of May.

I would like to invite you to join us.

The ‘EU caravan’, as we fondly call it, will start its journey on 9 May in Belgrade and will tour 10 other cities in Serbia.

You can experience there augmented reality exhibition which will bring to you to many beautiful stories from Serbia, where EU support helped local communities, doctors, sportsmen, entrepreneurs, start-ups and businesses to realise their best potential.

You will also be able to communicate and engage with artists from around Europe or take your photos on some of the continent most beautiful places, and enjoy many other interactive activities – from art installation to street art and quiz games.

We will also run an electronic music concert from the Golubac fortress which will be broadcasted throughout Europe via social media on 9 May.

As of 10 May, you can watch Stories from Serbia broadcasted every working day after the morning news programme on RTS1.

Dear friends – see the programme, follow our media channels and join us in celebrating Europe Day 2021.

Čekamo vas. Srećan Dan Evrope.
